

YOUNG AUTHORS for PERU NORTHVIEW 2015-2016 SCHOOL YEAR

Students in 1st through 4th grade at Northview School were recently honored as Young Authors at a county wide celebration at Grand Bear Lodge in Utica. Students from all over the county, all ages, were recognized for their hard work and dedication to writing. The 1st and 2nd grade students had the opportunity to hear Adam Peterson, a local kindergarten teacher and author of Play! He discussed his books and why he became an author. Alice B. McGinty, an award winning author of over 40 books, spoke to students in grades 3-4. This is a very prestigious honor! Congratulations to the following students listed below with the titles of their stories!

FIRST GRADE

Mrs. Atilano – Sophia Orozco – Runaway Pancakes

Mrs. Funfsinn – Carson Herman - Bats

Miss Graham – Addie Dawson – Journey of the Monarch Butterfly

Mrs. Moore – Camdeyn Gillan – How I Lost My First Fifth Tooth

SECOND GRADE

Mrs. Charbonneau – Reason McCormick – Beware: The Yilligayak

Mrs. Iossi – Keya Kowalski – The Day I Was One Inch Tall

Mrs. Patyk – Callie Perra – My Tiny Adventure

Mrs. Pletsch – Addyson Champlin – Jake and His Watermelon

Ms. Schwab – Alyssa Garcia – A Star on the Tree

THIRD GRADE

Mrs. Bosnich – Joshua Nieto – Leprechaun on the Run

Mrs. Happ – Jack Sabatini – My New Dog

Mrs. Holman – Ayla Dawson – My First Competition

Mrs. Kampwerth – Ariana Milby – Invisible Alien

FOURTH GRADE

Mr. Berg – Henry Huynh – The World Is Ending?

Mrs. Goddard – Sophia Pantoja – A Day With the Monkeys

Mr. Janssen – Litzly Lopez – Nobody Like Me

Mrs. Schmidt – Mason Amsberry – How Noah Became a Demigod

